For the past year the community and Kinship Programme have been pouring love into the Lower Virginia Bush with the belief that if you alter the environment you alter the atmosphere and all that happens in the space. We have built litterbooms, removed invasive water weeds and had Giffy repaint the dilapidated bird-hide. We've also installed signs and cleared trails. The community has funded these events by supporting our Labours of Love initiative and Fun Run.

The bush is in a dire state, and desperately in need of some love. We have a list of other upliftment tasks within the bush and will be using these days together to both tick them off, and spend time together as a community in service.
